Are you eligible for the CalEITC?

The California Earned Income Tax Credit (CalEITC) and the Young Child Tax Credit (YCTC) are tax credits for working Californians.

Get money back to use for the things you need. How much? That depends on your income and family size. Get started today by visiting CalEITC4Me.org.

No Social Security number? No problem!

ITIN holders may be eligible for hundreds of dollars in cash-back tax credits. If you work and pay state taxes with an ITIN (Individual Taxpayer Identification Number), you may qualify for the California Earned Income Tax Credit and the Young Child Tax Credit. The amount of your cash-back tax credit depends on your income and the size of your family. ➤ What are tax credits?

Tax credits reduce the amount of taxes you owe or increase your tax refund when you file your taxes. If eligible, you could receive hundreds of dollars in cash to buy groceries or pay bills—whatever you and your family need.

➤ Who can receive the CalEITC and YCTC?

To qualify for the CalEITC, you must be a worker who earned $31,950 or less in 2024, be at least 18 years old and earn at least $1 to claim the CalEITC when you file your taxes. The YCTC is for taxpayers who qualify for the CalEITC and have a child under the age of 6.

➤ What if I don't have an ITIN?

You must complete Form W-7 and submit documents that establish your identity to the IRS in order to get your number. Remember: this process can take months, so it's important to get started right away. We can help!

➤ Do state tax credits hurt my chances of getting a green card or citizenship?

No! In fact, it's a good idea to establish a public record of earning income and filing your taxes.
